Popular Music Syllabus

The committee is introducing this new syllabus with the aim of expanding the vocal syllabus to encompass the reflected interests of our students, particularly those wishing to get additional feedback during preparation for their Junior and Leaving Cert practical examinations.

Please remember our focus is on the development of young performers. We would like to remind all students and teachers that we are not looking for a cover or imitation, we are looking for your artistic interpretation utilizing your voice to showcase your artistic range and vocal command, and as in all our competitions our adjudicators are looking for healthy vocal production.

As with all of our other competitions an accompanist will be provided for the Popular Music competitions and you are encouraged to contact them to arrange a rehearsal, but you will also be permitted to bring your own accompanist at your own expense.

Genres: Below are the acceptable genres for song selection in this popular music section of the syllabus. (Please note, Jazz standards and song arrangements that have been taken from Musical Theatre productions should be presented in the Musical Theatre competitions, such as “My Funny Valentine” from Pal Joey or “Holding Out For a Hero” from Footloose the musical while a Jazz style Sarah Vaughan or Ella Fitzgerald arrangement of “My Funny Valentine” in which notable variation or scatting is included or a Pop style Bonnie Tyler arrangement of “Holding Out for a Hero” would be acceptable for this section).
